Japanese Journal's Warning.

All agree, remarks the Tokyo Kaizai

Zasshi ("Tokyo Economist"), in considering it of vital importance to determine the policy to be pursued by the Government coming negotiations for another revision of the treaties with foreign countries. In other words, it should be clearly understood whether, in revising the Customs tariff, more importance is to be attached to obtaining revenue or to the protection of home industries. The question in one of such gravity.

consideration on the part of publicists.

Therefore it is rather surprising to note that the conference of the United Cham:

bers of Commerce now in session should publish a document relating to matters to be investigated in connection with the tariff revision-with a distinct leaning in favour of a protective policy. It is explained in the document that "it i natural the Government should expect a reasonable amount of revenue from the Customs tariff, but in a country whose economic condition is like that of Japan the purposes must be avoided. In other words, the guiding principles to be followed by Japan in the matter of tariff revision should be he protection of home industries in such a way as to enture their growth, while the country's revenue is of secondary consideration.

The result of the investigations with such a strong predetermination in favour of protection may well be imagined, continues the Tokyo journalt. That the Chambers of Commerce are enthusiastic advocates of industrial protection may be inferred from their declaration in favour of heavy duties on manufactured and partially manufactured goods while opposing the taxing of raw materials. The Chambers of Commerce, they attach more importance to the protection of home industries than to the revenue which the Treasury will derive, and are recommending the Government to map out its tariff policy on this basis. It need hardly be said that the two objects—revenue and protection—can scarcely be attained at the same time. The one can result, to the loss of the consumer. Moreover, when Japan sets out on the path of protecting industries it will be very difficult to limit protection to that sphere only. It is more than probable that those who represent agricultural interests will also be induced to ask for protection, and they will not be satisfied until it is accorded them. Further, when Japan builds a tariff wall for the exclusion of foreign goods the countries.

A Remarkable Scheme.

TO RAISE SUNKEN TREASURE.

The "Osaka Jiji" recalls the wrock in the first year of Maiji (1868) of a German steamer, 4,700 tons, which struck a sunken rock near Kasajima, an island off Kurthama, near Urage. In the following year the steamer, together with the cargo, was sold by auction to the late Mr. Kirby, of Yokohama, for a sum of $65,000. In the 3rd year of Moiji (1870), the wreck, was transferred to Mr. Takashima Kayemon, of Yokohama, who tried to raise her between the 11th month of the same year: and the 1st mouth of the ensuing year, but without success, and the sunken treasure was abandoned for a along time. Mr Toyama Kembi, who from the first interested himself in the matter, deening the treasure too precious to be left at the bottom of the sea, obtained permission from Mr Takashima to raise the vessel, and in 1906 he made an attempt to secure the treasure, but owing to lack of funds he was compelled to suspend the operations. But he has never lost sight of the scheme. After consultation with experts he devised a plan to salve the treasure at a cost of Osaka journal adds that the wrecked steamor was an armed croiser and was purchased for the Sendai clan. In consequence of the War of Restoration, however, she could not be delivered, so was run on the coast under the German flag. She was wrecked on her way from Yokohama to the north. It was reported that she carried $90,000 in silver, 1030,000 kin of copper, 1,430,000 kin of bronze-work, in addition to a large quantity of valuable f rniture and gold and silver shipped by a dainiyo of importance. At the lowest estimate the value of the cargo cannot be less than Y600,000. The upper part of the steamer is for the most part ruined, but the upper deck aft still retains its former state, though it is covered with barnacles and with seaweed from 3 to 8 feet in length.

(Arnica, Camphor and Carbolic). RECENTLY a discussion raged—the word reged is justifiably, used as the controversy was most acrimonious-in Yokohama on the question whether the Japanese felt friendship as do dwellers in the West. A similar line of inquiry is casually suggested in our review upon the life of Sir Halliday Refreshing and Invigorating. Macartney. Do the Chinese feel what we call gratitude-the sentiment, in this instance, that an obligation is imposed upon an employer when his Turkish Bath Salt employee does more than his duty? Imparts a Delightful Fragrance That this sense of obligation is felt by Westerners is shown amongst other things by our pernicious habit of tipping. Undoubtedly tipping had its origin in a consciousness, or in any Genuine Double Distilled Toilet event, a belief, on the part of the tip-giver that his indebtedness to the tip-receiver was greater than the legal consideration which the latter was entitled to, covered. The practice, of course, has grown out of all bounds and has become one of the most serious of the minor problems of today. We are inclined to believe that a great deal of the seeming ingratitude > parent lack of friendliness on the part of the Japanese is caused por mutual misunderstanding, and its in-

of the Chinese and the ap-to be in a position to afford to be frank acknowledge that they are unable to fathom the Oriental mind. Sir Robert Hart himself, just after the Boxer trouble, said (we quote from memory) "I thought I had begun to understand China but I am now fain to admit that I know next to nothing." Other authorities have spoken of the "inscrutable Oriental." But it never seems to have occurred to Westerners tha in all probability, Orientals regard us as the "inscrutable Occidental.' Just as their methods of thought are strange to us so must our methods of thought seem strange to them. But although, speaking general ly, it must be admitted that the mis understanding has been only to a small Yolupteer Reserve Association Special extent swept away, there are indications that the time will come when Occidental Kiaochow, but the Wai Wu Pu has ob and Oriental will thoroughly appreciate jected. the good points in each other's character Noon—Auction of Household Property, at Mr Geo. CHINESE GENEROSITY

It has often been noticed that the Chinese are very generous when they take a matter in hand. In some affairs they appear to an outsider to be indifferent to the sorrows of their own people, but thi is really not so. That they allow beggars to die in the streets, and that there are The upper Chinese families are work- crowds of beggars, and others who roam about the streets of big cities of China a Canton in connection with the flood like Canton and Fatshan is because they have been accust med to do so, and no one has probably thought that there is anything incongruous or in- at Alencon. consistent about such apparent indifference. On the other hand, it is well known that in many ways the Chinese according to their traditions, are generous. Many persons will arrange that there shall be free ten for the tired and thirsty, and those injured who like can come and drink, without paying anything, even a few cash. Further the way in which the slopkeepers in Canton submit to the aggressive attacks of the thousands of beggars on certain days of the month, and to the personal appeals of some of this class on all days, also points to the same willingness to assist those who are down in their luck.

It may be answered that if the Chinese shopkeepers did not assist this class of person, the leaders of the beggars would so arrange matters that the better classes would have a warm time of it. The crowds of riff-raff would hover round the shops and continue to do so until life would b hardly worth living. On the other hand it seems that the better classes of people could easily induce the officials to take the matter in hand and so control the beggars that they would be unable to cause much annoyance, and might perhaps preven them from roaming the streets altogether. At any rate, as things are now, it certainly sooms as if the Chinese are generous to their own people, and that they are willing to help those who are in distress according to their means. The immediate occasion of these reflections is the recent remittance from th Chinese in Singapore to the funds for the relief of the Chinese who have been stricken by the flood. This is the third remittance moreover, that the Chinese from the Straits Settlements have sent up. This particular sum amounts to ten thousand dollars. Our information warrants us in stating moreover, that the entire sum received by the Tungwa Hos; ital Committee towards the relief of the sufferers from the recent floods amounts to no less than $235,500. This large sum does not include the amount that has been and will be realized by the Chinese bazaar, now being held. All this is very praiseworthy, and all the more so as it has been collected in so short a time. This large sum of course has come in to the Committee from sources other than the natives on the mainland-at least this i presumed to be so, as the latter have their own or anizations, which they working, and working for all that they are worth. This sum, it will be seen, is much larger than that subscribed by foreigners and Chinese united at the time of the great - Pristing. typhoon. If then there be added to this large sum of money a like amount from the people of Canton and Fatshan, and there is no reason why this should not be so, then it will be seen that the entire amount subscribed towards those who have been hit so hadly by the floods will be little if anything less than a half a million of dollars, and this is a large amount to given by the Chineso in the South spontaneously, without any official instigat attended and it is to be hoped that with tion or pressure. Probably in most of the schools of Hongkong su scription lists have been passed round, and the little ones have put down their ten. their twenty cents, and hardly any one ! declined to do what was possible: addition to all this the members of Native Christian Churches were early in the field, and, before the idea took shape that there should be a bazzar, and, we think, before very elaborate preparations had been made by the general Chinese Com mittee, they had subscribed their fifty dollars, or their one dollar, just as they wereable to do. All this is just as it should be, and will create a good impression amongst their In a County-court case one of the being made for the bazaar in Canton all Yangizo valley legates chosen from the Roman Catholic, and the Protestant Christians, and these Philippines. have met with the delegates from the non-Christian Chinese, and all classes are working amicably together. All this shows a great advance during the last ten yours. We are therefore justified in assuming that in this crisis the Chinese have done splendidly and that they have given expression to a feeling that is invate to them, and if developed in other smaller matters, would be a means of greatly alleviating the condition of some of the suffering classes, during their everyday life from month to month A GOOD SUGGISTION.

Presentation On Behaif Of Chinese Community.

One of the most interesting ceremonies which has taken place in recent years $100.00, The Trustees Parsee Charity took place at the Tung Wa Hospital this afternoon, when the Hon. Mr E. Ifving, Registrar General, who was deputed by His Excellency, Sir Frederick Lugard, who was prevented from making the presentation in person owing to pressure of official business, presented the owner, coxswain and crew of the steam launch Kam Shun with an embroidered silk banner, one gold medal and seven silver medals for their timely rescue of the majority of the passengers who were on bourd the E.S. Powan when she went aground at Capsimun Pass on the night of June 8.

The medals have on one side an appropriate inscription setting forth the fact that the service of the recipients in saving people from drowning were very great, and the other side bears the words "8th June. 1908, presented by the directors of the Shield Competition were played. The Hon. Dr Ho Kai said-Mr Irving, -Sir, I have been asked to introduce to you, the owner, coxswain and crew of the steam launch Kam Shun, and to request you to be so good as to present to them, on behalf of the leading members of the Chinese community, an embroidered silk banner, one gold and seven silver medals accompanied with gifts of small sums of money. I have very great pleasure in so doing, for I consider that a more gallant and successful act in life saving has never been witnessed within the waters of the Colony than that performed by the master of the Kam Shun and his crew on the 8th day of June last. need not recount in detail the terrible disaster that over-took the ill-fated vessel Powan on the night of the 8th ultimo, as the incident is doubtless still fresh in your memory, and the mind of the public. shall simply allude to the one bright spot amidst the gloom of that deplorable catastrophe, and that is the comparatively few lives lost largely owing to the bravery and promptitude in life-rescuing shown by the coxswain and crew of the Kam Shun. The Kam Shun was the first vessel that reached the Powan before it sank and by its timely and most valu able aid alone, about 130 out of something like 200 persons on board were successfully rescued from a watery grave. I have been informed that the assistance rendered was not unattended with considerable risk and danger to both vessel and crew of the rescuing boat, and this makes the merit of the rescuers all the greater, and our admiration of their humanity and gallantry all the more profound. As small token of such admiration, and as an encouragement to others who may be called upon at some future time to render similar services, we respectfully ask you to present on our behalf the owner, coxswain and crew with the various mementos which I shall now proceed to enumerate. To Mr Chan Ying Fan an embroidered silk banner. ToMrIsu Tai the coxewain, a gold medal and a purse of $50. To Messrs Chan Ying, Chan He, Yung, Ma Ti, a silver medal and a purse of $25 each. I have handed a banner, gold and silver medals and other rewards to the owner, coxswain and crew of the steam launch Kam Shun, to commemorate an action which will long live in the annals of Hongkong, and to mark the appreciation of the Chinese public. With out that timely action, that commendable promptitude, there are many Chinese families who would to day be mourning the loss of their nearest and dearest. AMOY NOTES.

. Amoy, July 11. On July 8th four Siamese torpedo boats came in from Japan, having called at Ningno on their way across. A Japanese Transport the s.s. Kotashira came in the same day from Kobe with coal. These boats have been made in Japan for the Siamese Government, and are manned partly by Japanese sailors, &c., in addition to a few Siamese. After coaling, the minature fleet left here on Friday 10th July. THE WEATHER.

It is abnormally hot just now, with only a moderate monsoon, and the nights are excessively sultry, making sleep difficult. In the absence of clouds during the day, the sun attains a fierceness that becomes almost unbearable, and the heat continues almost up to the time of sunset. No wonder that those who can manage it have fled to the hills of Tea Bo and Kuliang, for there at least the air is brisker and the nights much cooler than at sea level. Un fortunately it is only a moiety of the foreign residents who can avail themselves of the benefits of change: the majority of us are compelled to "dree our weird," taking such advantage of cold drinks, ice cream, and sea bathing in order to get cool, at least occasionally. **

JAPAN'S ECONOMIC SITUATION.

The Press Optimistic.

Though there are few signs as yet of any recovery from the trade depression of the last few months, it is refreshing as well as hopeful to observe that the vernacular Press has at last begun to write in optimistic-tones on the future of the economic situation says the "Japan Chronicle." One of the principal causes of the commercial inactivity, remarks the "Tokyo Asahi," is the partial stoppage of the export of raw silk, cotton yarn, and other goods. the stringency of the money market. only has money become much easier : but raw silk, which fell below Y800 at time, has now advanced to nearly Y1000, and a brisk trade is in progress. FASTER SHIPS.

A Belgian's Notable Invention. dent of the "Eclair" (Paris, Saturday). experiments have been conducted off that port with a remarkable Belgian invention. designed to increase the speed of ships of all kinds The apparatus consists of a special belt carried all round the bull of the vessel to the height of the load water-line, and pierced at frequent intervals by small orifices through which air at high pressure can be forced by means of a machine on board. The escaping air, it is claimed, forces the water back from the sides of the ship, and, by thus lessening the friction. increases the vessel's speed.

For the purpose of this experiment, the steamer "Belgique," fitted with the belt and with the inventor on board, wastowed for some distance by the French cruiser "Amiral Aube," at a speed ranging from 18 to 20 knots. Careful note of the water resistance was taken, and it is understood that a secret report on the trial has been ferwarded to the French Ministry of Marine. - Home paper, June 8th.

Whole Body Raw with Eczema-Life was Intolerable—Was Even -tucased in Plaster-Discharged from Hospitals as Hopeless.

SUFFERED 14 YEARS CURED BY CUTICURA

"From the age of three months until fifteen years old, my son Owen's life was made intolerable by eczema in its worst form. Ec a red rash broke out on his forehead, but we were not alarmed at first. Very soon, however, the rash began to spread over his head and shoulders, and t caused him great discomfort. I took him to a doctor and tried half a dozen other treatments, all with the same result; no improvement at all. The result: no improvement at all. The disease gradually spread until nearly every part of his body was quite ray. We had to strap him down in bed, for he used to tear himself dreadfully in his sleep. The agony he went through is quite beyond words. No one thought we would tear him. The regimental dector a very elever man, pronounced doctor, a very clever man, pronounced the case hopeless; at least, he said the only hope was that he might, if he lived long enough, outgrow it to seme extent. We had him in hospitals four finies and he was pronounced one of the worst cases, if not the worst, ever admitted. From each he was discharged as incurable, in fact-he get worse under the successive treatments. At one hospital they incessed him in plaster, and this seemed to agaravate the soreness terribly. He looked so badly that no one liked to go near him and his life was a burden to him. We and his life was a burden to him. We kept trying remedy after remedy, but we had not almost past hoping for a cure. Six menths ago we purchased a set of Cuticura Soap, Cintment, and Resolvent Pills and persovered with them. The result was truly marvelous and to-day he is perfectly cured, his skin not having a blemish on it anywhere. Mrs. Lily Hedge. 51.
